Jose Ledesma with the trophees he made for the winners of the final race. Jose made these trophees himself.

Jose is not only good in racing pigeons, he is extremely succesul in many different fields of human endeavor. He also produces incredible music and has his own CD. The CD consists of popular island traditional sounds. He has vision that he is able to express in music and in the forming of living art in his pigeons. Beautiful music, beautiful design, beautiful racing pigeons, a great family...what more could you wish to achieve ?
